New York Jan. 7th 1840

Mr. N. S. Dickson,

Yours of the 6th inst. is receiving. We find by reference to our a/cs with the Reading Room of your Seminary that the Papers had been paid for two years since it was last ordered, leaving three years now due -

The applications for gratuitous copies of our Papers have been so numerous, from every direction, from the highest grades of our literary Theological institutions down to the mere neighborhood clubs, that we have been obliged to adopt our general rule with all - as it would be impossible in us to say which of all the variety of applications are worthy of the Papers & which not - that rule is to charge all one dollar fifty cents when paid in advance and two dollars when not paid in advance -

In the case of your institution we are willing to receive $1.50 a year instead of $2.00 due - provided you pay for the fourth & present year at the same time making $6.00 - May. Perrine will I have no doubt enclose it for you free of expense -

Boston, 16. Sept. 1842.

Dr Sir.

We have just rec'd. a returned copy of the "New England Puritan", ~~to the the agent~~ sent the "Society of Inquiry" in the Theo. Seminary at Princeton, with the request that it may be stopped. This, we presume, was done under the apprehension that the time for which it was subscribed, has expired. That time will not expire till about the 1st of April 1843. We rec'd. $3.00 from the Committee of that Society, in Jan. last, for which we gave them credit for one year & a half, or from No. 40. Vol. 2. to No. 14. Vol. 4.

We acted on this liberal principle of taking only $2.00 for a year although it was not paid in advance, because they had previously sent us a payment as they have informed us, which never came to hand. In consequence of that loss of theirs, we credited them one year & a half for the 3.00 they sent us last January, although, according to our terms, we had a right to give them credit for only one year, as we require, usually, 3.00, if it is not paid within six months.

We beg, therefore, to continue to send the paper till the expires for which they have paid, or till about the 1st of April, 1843.

We hope, after this manifestation of liberality on our part, in consequence of their misfortune, that the Society will be disposed to take the paper, after their present subscription has expired, & we shall, according to our rule, continue to send it after that time, unless otherwise directed.

We thought this detailed view of the circumstances of the case due to themselves & to us, & we would avail ourselves of your kindness to request that you will hand this explanation over to the Committee of the Society of Inquiry.

We supposed that we had sent them a receipt for the amount paid; but concluding that we did not, we enclose one to the Committee.

Very respectfully
Your obt Servts.

Sir

Yrs of the 1st inst was received respecting the copy of the Catholic Herald which has been sent recently to the "Reading Room of the Thos Fleming" at Princeton. The paper was sent at the request of some person (I think Mr Fleming) of Princeton saying that he had been requested to ask me if I w.d furnish a copy for the benefit of the place. Not being at home at the time I did not see the gentleman who called but when I heard of the request I entered the name of the reading room on the Mail Book, intending it to be gratuitous.

Respectfully Yrs
